I've always been bad at English and gave up studying abroad because I didn't have confidence even in college.

I was able to try it for the first time in Malta before I become 30 🙄🙄 It was a very short time, just 2 weeks, I made friends both from Japan and abroad that I would like to see again, I learned the power of converting my message into English 🙌🇺🇸

Malta has delicious food, many events for international students, safe and touristy places, and people from many different countries. It was the perfect environment to learn English while enjoying cross-cultural exchange and sightseeing 📺

I'm really glad I went and wish I could have stayed longer, I would like to do a long term study abroad program again someday 🙌
Thank you so much to everyone I met in Malta ❤️

My English Journey with IELTS in Malta
After deciding to immigrate to the US this year, I wanted to focus on improving my English. Before choosing where to study, one of my friends suggested Malta. I'm not the kind of person who thinks things through for too long 😊 When I arrived, everything was so new and exciting. Once I settled into life here, I completely fell in love with Malta 🇲🇹 the people, the Mediterranean sun, the food, the culture, everything. I've been lucky to meet amazing roommates, classmates, and teachers. Being here has really opened up my perspective. Before I came, I was a bit nervous, but sticking to my routine and focusing on studying has helped me build so much confidence. Speaking was the hardest part for me, and I still don't feel 100% ready but staying in Malta has made me much more confident. What I learned here wasn't just English it was also the belief that I can achieve my goal step by step.

The teachers are qualified and use interactive teaching methods, making learning English more dynamic and efficient. In addition, the multicultural environment allows you to make friends from all over the world, further enriching the experience.

Located in Sliema, one of the most vibrant areas of Malta, IELS combines quality teaching with a privileged location, surrounded by beautiful landscapes, beaches and lots of history. Studying at IELS was a very assertive choice. ❤️
